OTHER PROJECTS

Data Science   July 2017 - present

Since July 2017 I have studied data science, statistical learning, and machine learning extensively in both classes, online courses, and my spare time. I am well-versed in different supervised and unsupervised algorithms and I am able to implement them in R and Python. I have composed this report on how it is possible to use machine learning in social innovation.

MicroMasters in Data Science (Edx.org)   August 2020 - present
